

Page 77- when I got back to Montgomery course I stayed off the buses.

75- Though the network was elegantly designed, there were not enough seats in the car pool.

74- MIA: Transportation system that drops workers back and from work.

Jax

(Jadlyh)

Evidence: "The 'buses' would be a giant carpool consisting of ordinary pe automobiles." (Horse, 75)

Lina
(Syleena)

E1: "The city Lines bus company declared the proposed changes illegal and said that, unfortunately, their hands were tied." (page 73)

E2: "Cray, like the NAACP lawyers in New York who were closely following the boys, was tired of playing defense." (Page 8)

NWA

E1: "City lines bus company declared the proposed changes illegal"

E2: "lawyers in New York who were closely following the boycott was tired of playing defense"

4011
Pg: 74 → "Couched by leaders of Baton Rouge's bus boycott of 1953, the MTA designed an alternative to the buses on the scale of a wartime military transport system moving tens of thousands of meals to yardmen and clerks and students."

Pg: 79 → "By late January, the City Lines bus company was losing $3,200 a

Elijah ~~Clinton~~

April

1. Quoted Evidence: "Coached by leaders of Baton Rouge's bus boycott of 1955, the Montgomery Improvement Association (MIA) designed an 10 buses in the scale of a wartime military transport system moving troops."
2. Quoted Evidence: "By late January, the City Line bus company was 100% empty. They had been forced

A.P.

Anthony

75 "Here's how it worked: A maid needed to get across driven to a drop off point".

79 "A lot of people volunteered their cars for the boycott".

4-4-19

Brianne

"By late January, the City Lines bus company was losing 3,200 a day." (pg 89)

"The "buses" would be a giant car pool consisting of ordinary people's automobiles. Car owners were asked to lend their vehicles to the MIA car pool so that other... " (pg 75)

"

Jolise

75 "Here's how it worked:
a maid needed to get across driven to a drop off point"

7a "A lot of people volunteer their cars for the boy"

Zackary

Black folks were starting to avoid the busses and take processes to not take the bus.

↓

"Here's how it worked: a maid needing to get across town to her white employer: home... and to drop-off point nearer her home."

Black folks take steps to avoid the busses.

↓

"A lot of people volunteered their cars

Kenwam

"By late January, the City Lines bus company losing $3,200 a day."

"The 'buses' would be a grant car pool of ordinary people's automobiles. Car owners were asked to lend their vehicles to the MI car pool."

Jay

77% When I got back ~~to~~ to Montgomery of course I stayed off the buses.

75% Since it was against the law for private cars...

MIA: creating the car pool (Para 7 page 74)

(Para 2, page 75)

"The 'buses' would be a giant carpool consisting of ordinary people's automobiles

69. The boycott since it was against the network of

Some

pg 74 1/2

pg 75

pg. 74 - MIA

pg. 75 - car pool