

Cycle 12 dict = latin root for speak
word	definition
dictate	(v) To read or say something aloud that a person writes down (v) to command with authority (n) an authoritative rule or command
prediction	(n) a guess about something that will happen in the future
unpredictable	(adj) not capable of being predicted
contradict	(v) to say the opposite of what someone else says
dictionary	(n) a reference that provides the definition of words
diction	(n) choice of words (n) clear and specific pronunciation of words
valedictorian	(n) the student usually having the highest rank in a graduating class who usually (but not always) delivers a speech at graduation

Cycle 12 dict = latin root for speak
word	definition
dictate	(v) To read or say something aloud that a person writes down (v) to command with authority (n) an authoritative rule or command
prediction	(n) a guess about something that will happen in the future
unpredictable	(adj) not capable of being predicted
contradict	(v) to say the opposite of what someone else says
dictionary	(n) a reference that provides the definition of words
diction	(n) choice of words (n) clear and specific pronunciation of words
valedictorian	(n) the student usually having the highest rank in a graduating class who usually (but not always) delivers a speech at graduation